

Liz Gwyther, MB, ChB, FCFP, MSc

CEO, Hospice Palliative Association of South Africa

Vice-chair, Worldwide Hospice Palliative Care Alliance

Senior lecturer, palliative medicine, University of Cape Town

Dr. Liz Gwyther has postgraduate qualifications in Family Practice and Palliative Medicine. She is CEO of Hospice Palliative Care Association of South Africa (HPCA); a Trustee of the Worldwide Hospice Palliative Care Alliance (WPCA); and a director of the following organisations – African Palliative Care Association, ehospice, Networking AIDS Community of South Africa (NACOSA), and Pain Society of South Africa.

She is a senior lecturer at the University of Cape Town where she heads the Palliative Care team within the School of Public Health and Family Medicine. She is the convener for the postgraduate programmes in Palliative Medicine and is responsible for research supervision and support for publications of the postgraduate students. Her special interests are women's health and palliative care (in particular palliative care in HIV/AIDS) and human rights in health care. In 2007, she was awarded the SA Medical Association's Gender Award for Human Rights in Health and the SA Institute of Health Managers Leadership in Health Systems award.

She is a member of the editorial board of the Journal of Pain & Symptom Management published in the USA.